Courses in the Community

In-depth courses designed for your church or community and led by faculty from Emory University’s Candler School of Theology

SEMESTER COURSES
Ranging from 10-14 weeks, these seminary-level courses are open to both community participants and Candler students. Taught in local congregations or online, with no application required.

COURSE EXAMPLES
- The Drama of Eden
- Stranger Things: Science and Faith Dialogue
- The Gospels in Comparison
- The Ten Commandments

SHORT COURSES
Ranging from 3-6 weeks, these courses are conducted in partnership with churches and other organizations in and beyond Atlanta. Courses cover a variety of topics, from the Bible and theology to social justice and Christian leadership.

COURSE EXAMPLES
- The Bible and Poverty
- Approaches to Criminal Justice Ministry
- Written in Stone? Exploring the Meaning and Ethics of the Ten Commandments
- Wilderness Wanderings

For more information, email us: candlerfoundry@emory.edu or visit our website: www.candlerfoundry.emory.edu